"They have done winstevery American citizen has a right to do. They have done better than our Democratic advocates of the gold standard have done, because these Republicans, when they left the party, Joined with those who had a chance to succeed, while our Democratic advocates of the gold standard sought to secure the election of a Republican candidate by nominating a Democratic candidate. [Cries of "That's 10."] Intend to show you that the action of die Republicans is defended by experience and example.

"Let me carry you back to the period just preceding the war. If you will turn to a book recently published, entitled "John Sherman's Recolections" [laughter] you will find on page 112 of the first volume, a portion of a speech which he delivered in Congress in 1856, Let me read this extract:

Compromise after compromise has been submitted to by the silver Republicans in the hope that the party of their choice and love would at last bring to the people the relief which they desired.

"But the Republican party, like that party in 1856, has been led off by another administration, until it has deserted its traditions and its platform, and these Republicans have a right to say to their Republican associates. We will go with you no longer until this nation is redeemed. [Applause.]

"I believe that John G. Carlisle did not exaggerate the truth when he said. The consummation of this scheme means more of misery to the human race than all the wars, pestilences, and famines that ever occurred in the history of the world."

Who does not stand appalled before misery "Who does not stand appalled before misery like that? Among you, who is willing to be party to a conspiracy that his for its object the consummation of that scheme? [A voice: "No-body."] It is against the consummation of this scheme, eloquently and forcibly described, that the silver Republicans have arisen in protest. I respect the convictions which have led them. I thank you for the support which they have tendered, and all that I can promise is that I shall, to the best of my ability, endeavor to prove worthy of their confidence, [Applause.]

Mr. E. Harrington of Kansas made a brief address. He said he was chosen to notify Mr. Arthur Sewall of his nomination, but Mr. Sewall had sent a despatch saying he could not be present and asking that the notification be given to Mr. Bryan in trust.
Mr. Bryan spoke a few words in behalf of Mr. Sewall, accepting the nomination.
There was inneh speculation concerning Mr. Sewall's absence. The Committee on Arrangements, as well as Chairman Groot, expected that he would be here to receive notice of his nomination with Mr. Bryan.

BRYAN'S ARRIVAL IN LINCOLN.

4 Eather Tame Reception-His Speech in the Afternoon.

Lincoln, Neb., Sept. 8.—One of the first things that attracted the attention of Mr. try an and his party on their arrival in this city o-day was the prevalence of golden rod. Neary one-fourth of the people at the railroad staon wore a spray of the yellow flower, and the streets were full of people similarly decorated. When Mr. Bryan came home from the Chilago Convention nearly two months ago, local pride was stirred to the depths, and the citizens penerally under cover of a non-partisan committee of arrangements, turned out to pay tribute to the Presidential nominee. Since that time the campaign has so fully progressed that local pride has been swallowed in partisan zeal. careful lest the idea should go forth that they were assisting in any way in to-day's demonstration. To this end they brought in wagon loads of golden rod from the prairie just outside of town, and anti-Bryanices with almost one accord hastened to fasten a piece of golden rod to their coats. This flower, which by act of the Legislature is the floral emblem of the State, had to-day a special significance, It stood for gold. If any sound-money man wearing golden rod was observed at the railway station or in the crowd on the Capitol grounds his presence was due to curlosity. He listened to what Bryan had to say, but his vote was rewas a marked difference between Mr.

There was a marked difference between Mr. Bryan's reception on his return to-day and that which marked the end of the triumphal tour from Jacksonville to Lincoln after the nomination in Chicago. To-day there were 2,000 persons to meet the candidate as he alighted from the train, and there was ucconsiderable demonstration. When Mr. Bryan came home before he was met by nearly 10,000 people. Then the city was handsomely decorated, and all of the city's whistles were blown. To-day there was a imited display of flags and bunting, and along the line of march of the liryan procession from the station to the candidate's residence about one-half of the houses displayed a large lithograph of McKiniey. The steam whistles of the city are under Republican control, and partisan feeling allowed no sound to escape from the valves.

feeling allowed no sound to escape from the valves.

The reception was strictly partisan. Nebraska Populists had made claborate preparations for the ceremony of notification by the National Committee of the so-called Silver party. Disappointed in losing the Democratic notification, and uncertain as to whether there will be any distinctly Populist notification, the Populists determined to make the most of the silver ceremony. There is no Silver party in this State. Every man who served on the Reception Committee or assisted in any way in the exercises is either a Populist or a Popocrat. The Populists were mainly in control.

is either a Populist or a Popucrat. The Populists were mainly in control.

Mr. Bryan arrived from Chicago over the Burlington at 10:45 cclock A. M., the train being a half hour late. On the train with Mr. Bryan were George A. Groot of Cleveland, O., Chairman of the Silver Notification Committee: Col. E. Harrington and Judge J. W. Fitzgeraid of Kansas, Judge W. Grogg of Indiana, and G. S. Bridweil of filinois, and the Silver Knights, with two bands, were waiting to escort the candidate to his residence. When the train pulled in and the crowd got a glimpse of Bryan's features there were cheers waiting to escort the candidate to his residence. When the train pulled in and the crowd got a glimpse of Bryan's features there were cheers and waving of hats. Mr. Bryan and Chairman Groot were escorted to the rear end of the platform, where carriages were in waiting. The procession was quickly made up. First came Chief Marshal Miller and his aides, and following was the Home Guards and the State band. In the first carriage, drawn by four white horses, were Mr. Bryan, Mr. Groot, Gov. Holcomb, and Morris Humphrey of this city, the last two being members of the Recaption Committee, Members of the Silver Committee and others filled five other carriages. The procession disbanded at Mr. Bryan's residence. There were occasional cheers along the route.

Mrs. Bryan received her husband at their home, and they entertained a number of the visitors from abroad at dinner. At the last moment there was a change in the arrangements for the remainder of the day, it had been announced that the notification would take place in the afternoon, but this was changed, and the afternoon meeting was given over to informal speaking.

in the afternoon, but this was changed, and the afternoon meeting was given over to informal speaking.

At 1:30 P. M. a large parade was formed and marched through the principal streets to the Capitol. The sidewalks were lined with people in the business portion of the city. The parade consisted of three divisions, and contained delegations from a number of near-by towns. One wagon contained the frame from which a Bryan picture was burned during a recent Republican torchlight procession, and the incident was referred to by various inscriptions such as "Outrage, Insult," "Infamy," &c. It was 3:30 F. M. when the procession reached the Capitol grounds. A platform was crected on the north side of the State House, fronting a wide plaza, which was quickly filled with people. E. E. Brown of this cits, a national banker and former Republican, introduced Mr. Bryan. Mr. Brown tried to make a few remarks, but the crowd was impatient, and he had to give way to Mr. Bryan.

The latter was warmly received. The crowd cheered for a couple of minutes. Mr. Bryan began by saying that he would not make a speech, but he was encouraged to go on at every pause, and he spoke for more than forty minutes. Between 3,000 and 4,000 persons listened to the address. Mr. Bryan spoke as follows:

"Ladies and Gentlemen: I am only going to talk to you a little while. There are others here who are prepared to discuss the issues of the campaign in your presence, and I am trying to do as little work as possible. I think I nave been doing my snare so far as time is concerned lories of "You are right"; but I want to avoid getting tired by resting before I get tired, and therefore I am going to ask you to listen to me but a short time.

"It is now just about one mouth since I left Nebraska and turned eastward. It has been an interesting trip. I want to assure you that the sentiment in favor of the free coinage of silver is a growing sentiment. I Applause.] If far surpassed my expectations in the East, and I found among those people the producers of wealth, the farmers and the laborers, who are joining with you to free themselves from the domination of those fluancial influences which have controlled our legislation and our financial policies. (Applause.)

"You will find in the very shadow of Wall street as bitter hatred toward the influences from which you have suffered as you will find that they had as much right to attend to their business as the New York banker had to attend to his business. [Applause.]

"Another thing that I noticed is the incense earnestness that characterizes this campaign. I have not found a lukewarm man anywhere. They have been for us or against us. I am glad to see that, because, my friends, politics is a serious business when you confront such issues as coafe, the American people now [cries of "That stight"]. We have had a financial system which has been injurious to the masses of the people; we have nad a financial system which has been injurious to the masses of the people; we ha date who stands upon it has emphasized that declaration.

As against the maintenance of a gold standard, either for one day or forever, the Democratic party has declared for the immediate restoration of the money of the Constitution. [Appliance] Not only the Democratic party, but the silver party and the Populist party, both of these have Joined with the Democratic party in making this the maramount issue of the campaign. They are trying to drag in other questions, but, my friends, there can be no other question until we first determine whether the people of this country are able to have their own policy and until we have decided upon it.

"I do not know whether all of you fully realize the intensity of the struggle in which you

"I do not know whether all or you fully rea-lize the intensity of the struggle in which you are engaged. Our opponents began the cam-paign by asserting that the American people were not able to establish bimetallism, and when they found there was a revolt among the American people against such a policy they commenced a system of coercion and terroriz-no, insiding that the masses of the people eyes ng, insisting that the masses of the people even have not the right to determine what kind of ing, insisting that the masses of the people even have not the right to determine what kind of polley they want. [Applause,]

"This terrorism and coercion is manifested in two ways. In the first place, the heads of many great corporations are undertaking to compet their employees to support the gold standard. [Cries of "That's so," and "Shame."] My friends, if the heads of those corporations assert the right to control the vote of those who work for them, then we have presented to the America people even a greater question than the silver question. [Applause.] It a corporation has the right to control the vote of an employee on one question, it has the right to control it on every other question. [Cries of "Right you are" and applause.] Those corporations were not constituted for any such purpose. They are creatures of law. Has the law given unto these corporations and such power: [Cries of "No, never."]
"If there are those here who are opposed to us on the money question, they dare not approve of the conduct of those corporations that are attempting to coerce the voters in their employ.
"My friends, do you think you are under a employ.

"My friends, do you think you are under a government of the people? I want to ask you what you think will be the result if we set to be a government by the bankers? [Applaine.] If we could trust our affairs to a New York banker, we might endure it for a time, but when you remember that the New York banker is under control of the London banker I ask you to reflect before you submit the neellines of a free people to a few financiers. We have been told that we cannot berrow money from abroad unless we have a financial system that is satisfactory to the people abroad. My friends, you let them control your financial system and you will never see a time when you can get out of the clutches of those who are dominating your financial policy. [Great cheering.]

"Talk about arraying one class against another. I want to ask you why it is that every Democrat who is interested in a syndicate and trust or has a salary from a railroad corporation is arrayed against the Democratic party? (Cheers. Why is 12 the because the mploy. "My friends, do you think you are under a cate and trust or has a sciary from a railrond corporation is arrayed against the Democratic party? [Cheers.] Why is 1.7 It is because the Democratic party has declared against the issue of bonds in time of peace and the trafficking with studiestes. ["That's right," from the crowd.] It is because the Democratic party is opposed to the trusts and the prices which the trusts have instituted. It is because Democratic marty believes in the control and the regulation and the restriction of all corporations so that they will serve the purpose for which they were allowed to exist. [Great cheering.] If those connected with trusts are flocking together in the Republican party may we not appeal to all the smaller business men who have felt the from heel of the trust and who have believed out. the smaller business men who have felt the iron heel of the trust and who have been driven out of business by its unlawful competition. [Great of business by its unlawful competition, to real applicable.

"If we are to lose all the attorneys of these great trusts [a cry of "Let them go"] may we not appeal with confidence to the support of the people who have been plundered by these trusts and their attorneys who have received a part of the plunder? (Cheers and shouts of "Yes.") We are not responsible for the arraying of one class against another. These people have defined business men to be a few, not the producers of wealth, but the exchangers of wealth, or those who try to corner the wealth, and they are trying to array them against the rest of the what try to corner the weatth, and they are trying to array them against the rest of the people. The Republican platform in the State of New York says that we ought to have a business administration, conducted by business men in behalf of the business interests of the country. What do they mean by that? Do they call in behalf of the business increases of the call try. What do they mean by that? Do they call the farmers business men? [Cries of "No,"] On, no. simply producers of wealth. But if a man goes on the Board of Trade and makes more in an hour betting on the prices of wheat you raise than you make in a year he becomes a business man.

These people who have attempted to array a ten of the neople against the rest of the people.

"These people who have attempted to array a few of the people against the rest of the people, and who have insisted that the affairs of this Government should be put in the hands of a few when we have combinined, what suphonious names they have given to us! They have been calling us "disturbers of the peace," and they have called us "Anarchists." [Gireat cheering.] My friends, these terms simply express the contempt which they have for the great mass of the people of this country. [Cries of "They've been doing it for twenty-five years."] These names they call us simply prove that they are not willing to trust the deathnies of this republic in the hands of the people who have created its wealth in times of peace and who have fought its battles in time of war. [Applause.]

"Show me those people who now call us Anarchists and I will show you a lot of people who, if we had a war, would never goto the front, but they are the people who slander those who would fight the battles to save their own prop-archists and I will show you a lot of people who, if we had a war, would never got the front, but they are the people who slander those who would fight the battles to save their own property." [Anplause,]

Mr. Bryansaid that when he was called a disturber of the public peace it was gratifying to meet the tollers of his own city, who endorsed him as one they were willing to trust. He said he expected a majority of this (Lancaster) county, and a majority of not less than 25,000 in Nebraska. He thought even this majority was not large enough. Continuing, he said:

"My friends, gentlemen down in New York called attention to the fact that sentiment was all on our side in this campaign, and one man said that a man could not write a peem in favor of syndicates running the business of this country. [Applause]. Do you know what word rhymes with "syndicate"? It is "hate," and you cannot write a peem and you cannot write a

"I have not found any more enthusiasm anywhere than in the neighborhood of New York city, and all through the State of New York and all through Pennsylvania the reports which were given not only by Demacrats but by aliver Republicans are so encouraging that you can hardly believe they are entirely true. I used to think we ought to have a mourners' bench at our meetings, so those that were under conviction and about to undergo a change of heart might come to the mourners' bench. [Laughter.] But Instead of coming to the mourners' bench they come shouting, they are so glad. "Among the Republicans who have come over, and their name is legion, there is as much enthusiasm as there is among the Democrats. [A voice, "More."] And I really believe that for every Democrat we lose because of the position we have taken on the money question we are going to get sixteen who are not bemocrats. [Applause.] While our opponents do not understand what is to I means and give various delinitions, I believe that definition is the one they fear most. [Laughter].
"In one county in Ohio, where the vote was five to one for the Republicans, there have been thirty-three speeches made by silver Republicans, and they say they are going to carry that county; and wherever I have been men have told me they were Republicans from the time they first voted for Lincoln and some even for Fremont, and this is the first time they ever voted the Democratic ticket, but they consulted it as important now to have this country govern itself as ever before, and they are just as earnest now in trying to release the people from financial bondage as they have ever been in advocating the principles of the Republican party. TAMMANY WOODEN INDIANS. A Delegation to Buffalo with the Live Men

Tammany has rarely, if ever, sent so many onknown men to a State Convention as were elected last night for delegates to Buffalo.

Nor was there ever a time before that district leaders were not anxious to go. The returns show that several district leaders refrained from electing themselves. This was the case with Rollin M. Morgan and ex-City Chamber. lain T. C. T. Crain. Both these men are known to be opposed to the free-silver plank of the platform which, it has been agreed, must be endorsed at Buffalo. They are members of the Executive Committee from the Twenty-ninth district.

John J. Scannell and Edward Kearney, the leaders in the Twenty-fifth district, also kept off the ticket. Mr. Kearney is a prominent business man and hashtold his friends that he intends to support McKinley. Another man who will be conspicuously absent from the dele-gation is James J. Martin, Chairman of Tam-many's Executive Committee. He is the leader in the Twenty-seventh district. in the Twenty-seventh district.
The names of ex-Mayors Gilroy and Grant do not appear in the list, aithough they have almost invariably bee namong State delegates for ten years and more.

The only Democrat of any note, aside from the leaders and placeholders who were elected was ex-Surrogate Rastus S. Ransom, a former law partner of Senator Hill. He was elected in the Seventeenth district.

The delegates and about 900 other Tammany braves will leave for Buffalo on next Tuesday over four different railroads. The headquarters of the organization will be at the Goneace House.

The Tammany Hall Executive Committee will meet at 4 o'clock this afternoon to its the dates for the primaries to nominate candidates for Congress and Assembly and elect delegates to the County Convention. By this time, in an ordinary campaign, all the nominations have been practically decided on by Tammany, but it is to-day a matter of speculation in many Congress and Assembly districts who will be the nominees.

he nominees. The fact that the Buffalo Convention is exrate fact that the Bullaio Convention is ex-pected to endorse the Chicago platform has practically taken every gold Bemocrat out of the race, and there are few silver advocates looking for Congress nominations except Will-iam Sulzer, James J. Walsh will probably be nominated in the Eighth district, and the talk norainated in the Eighth district, and the failt now is in favor of nominating Congressman Amos J. Cummings of the Tenth district in the Seventh. He is a resident of the Seventh district, from which he was originally elected. John C. Shewhan said yesterday that the organization will begin an active campaign for Bryan after the return from Buffalo. The committee on speakers is already arranging the debils and securing a list of speakers who are willing to talk in favor of a fifty-three-cent dollar.

SINJUN PERKS UP A BIT.

Gets $10,000 from "A Gold Miner" and Suppresses a Song at His Own Expense, The Hon. Mr. Sinjun, who still holds the title Treasurer for the Popograt all comers, although his clared yesterday in an official interview that he had received a contribution of $10,000 for campaign nurposes. "It came from a gold miner." said Mr. Sinjun. "No, it wasn't from Stewart or Jones of Nevada. Make up your mind to that. It didn't come from either of them. It came from a man further West. The Evening Post says I'm greatly excited over this contribution. I am not. I want to tell you that I received it last night, and I went home and went to sleep just as though nothing had happened. It wasn't a bit excited over it. I can't tell you who sent the $10,000. No, sir, and I will not. But I wasn't excited over it. That much I can say to sitively, and I think I know myself better than the fellow who said I was excited."

The Hon. Mr. Smjun had a little matter which caused him annovance. I. N. Stevens is Vice-Chairman of the National Silver party. He was in Chicago yesterday, and a despatch said he was on his way to New York to have Mr. Sinjun deposed as Trensurer of the Silver party, because he had issued a some known as the "American Marseillaise." Mr. Sinjun denied this. Ho said:

"Mr. Sievens is on his way to Denver. I did confer with the author of a song 30 be known as the "American Marseillaise." I gave him $50 to go to Chicago to confer with Chairman Jones. I didn't order 500,000 copies, as reported. There was a misunderstanding, and I paid the bill out of my own pecket. I have stopped the issue. On receipt of an advance copy it seemed to me inexpedient to use the song as a campaign song, subject, as I knew we would be, to hypercriticism. The title, "American Marseillaise," is somewhat dubious. Here is one of the statuzas:

The suffring mother, mute, appeals, Ascellaters round her cling. to sleep just as though nothing had happened.

The suff'ring mother, mute, appeals

This refrain goes with each stanza:
No crown of thoras shall ness the toller's bear No crown of thorns shall press the toller's brow: Yes, no crown of thorns, crown of thorns, toller's brow.

No cross of gold shall crucify the poor man now; Yes, no cross of gold, cross of gold. BELL AN ORIGINAL SILVERITE, The Deputy Commissioner of Pensions Proclaims His Fulth. WASHINGTON, Sept. 8,-Numerous statements have appeared as to the attitude of Henry C. Bell of Illinois, Deputy Commissioner of Pensions, to the silver question. One was that he became a silver man only after was that he became a suver man only after failure to secure promotion. Renlying to some of these criticisms, Mr. Hell said to-day: "I am not a recent convert to free silver, but I have been advocating it opening and above board, as everybody knows who knows me, for board, as everybody knows who knows me, for years. I was in full sympathy with my party in Illinois at the time of the silver Convention in that State, over a year ago. Moreover, I have never been an applicant for any promotion in the Pension Bureau since I secured my present appointment as Deputy Commissioner of Pensions, nor have I ever expected any promotion.

Plutoerata, Corporations, and Rich Men Warned to Reep Gut of the Pop Campaign Fund, but All Others, Who Will, Are Invited to Send In Their Bollars. WASHINGTON Sept. 8 .- The following ad dress to "Every American Patriot" has issued from the headquarters of the National People's party:

"The People's party, as its name implies, is the champion of the masses who labor and pro duce wealth. It was summoned into existence by an industrial conference that represented the producers of the nation. When it sprang into the political arena it was the only party de manding the enactment of laws for the suppression of monopolies and for the equal protection of all citizens against the encreachments of corporate power. It is now the only party in existence which, with undivided membership, is demanding equal rights to all and special privileges to name. To the efforts of this party is due the revolt of the masses of the Democratic party which resulted in turning down the Cleveland Administration and its British financial policy, and the nomination of William J. Bryan on a platform demanding financial independence for the United States. The Piutocratic elements that heretofore dominated Democratic conventions and dictated nominations are now vigorously resenting the action of the Chicago Convention, which they consider an unwarranted interference on the part of the voters. They have organized, and are now the open and aggressive allies of the gold Republicans, and, with their money and votes, will do everything in their power to defeat the will of the people by the election of Mc Kinley, the Republican candidate, whose nomination was dietated by, and whose administration is mortgaged to, a combination of Amer ican and English monopolists and plutocrats.

"The mission of the People's party is to re store the Government to the protie. To this end it has nominated Mr. Bryan for President. and Mr. Watson for Vice-President, which is not only the true ecoperative ticket for the sliver voters of all parties to unite upon, but which is also the best silver ticket in the field. Our friends must not all ate one jot or tittle of their interest and efforts to advance the principles of the People's party simply because another party has been forced to adopt nearly all of our principles. It must be remembered that the control of the National Democratic Convention was obtained by the rilver men of that party only through a hitter contest in each State-a contest, however, which was forced upon the party and its leaders by the existence and rapid growth of the People's party. Had it and rapid growth of the People's party. Had it not been for the People's party, each one of the old parties would this year have been running a gold bug for President, as they have in each campaign for the last twenty years. The People's party have made this political revolution possible, and its continued existence and growth is necessary to secure reforms for which the Populists and Silver Democrate are alike contending in this sampaign.

"It must also be remembered that there is now a considerable minority in the Democratic party who, though supporting the action of the Chicago Convention, do so from policy, and behind their present position is lurking many a doubt and mental reservation. That these doubts and mental reservations may yet refiniors the doubt and mental reservation. That these doubts and mental reservations may yet reference the losting plutocrats of the Indianapolis convention and render the action of the Democratic party uncertain in the future are possibilities to be discounted, and the People's party is the only agency through which the people can do this. Therefore, it is the interest and duty of every good citizen who believes in a covernment as understood and administered by Jefferson. Jackson, and Lincotn to upbuild and strengthen this new organization which has made referm and relief possible in this campaign.

The National Compared and corporationists. party draws its campaign funds from bankers and corporationists. The National Committee of a party exercise great influence in the selection of national officers, from President of the United States down to the village Pestmaster. A political party cannot in the nature of things remain true to any other source than that from which it receives its support. Whenever a National Committee, through some secret and unseen agency, collects large sums of campaign funds, then it is sure that that party is mortgaged to those who contribute such funds. In fact, such a party is sure to pass laws giving to the monopolists and trusts who furnish these campeign funds such special privileges as will enable them to levy tribute upon the jesople. When contributions to campaign funds come from such sources they do not come as a gift, but as an investment upon which they expect a second of the second of t return an hundred fold. If this were not so, the trusts and menopoits would not throw away their money in campaigns.

"Therefore, the people must contribute the necessary funds for some political party during the campaign in order to have that party to guard their interests after election. If the People's party is placed in power, it will serve the people; and to be left free to do this your National Committee cannot and will be accept contributions from the monance.

party to guard their interests after election. If the People's party is piaced in power, it will serve the neeple; and to be left free to do this your National Committee cannot and will not accept contributions from the monopolists who seek special laws to enable them to prey upon the people.

"The People's party proceeds from the people, and is of the people, and must receive its support from the neeple direct in the form of small contributions from the individual voter. Such small contributions from the individual voters of any political party would furnish an abundant campaign fund for all legitimate purposes, and enable the party receiving it to successfully compete with any corrupt organization of bankers, corporal only, and venal politicians.

Therefore, in behalf of the people of the United States, who produce wealth and pay taxes, the People's party National Committee appeals to all who are able and willing to do so to contribute the sum of $1 to our national campaign fund. A prompt response is urgently re, lested to enable us to prosecute a vizorous campaign in defence of our homes and liberties that are menaced by a combined plutocracy—the Rothschild-Morgan-Gleveland-Palmer combination fighting as in front, and the Rothschild-Morgan Cleveland-Palmer combination fighting as in the rear. Four years more of gold standard and monopoly rule, with falling crices and shrinking values, and thousands more of our laborers will be without employment. Plutecracy is desperate, and is detern need to have a President and Congress of its own that will increase and use the army to suppress of the own that will increase and use the army to suppress of the own that will increase and use the army to suppress of the own that will increase and use the army to suppress of the own that will increase and use the army to suppress of the own fight. TILLMAN'S ADVICE TO EVANS. The Seastor Says He Told the Governor to Turn the Rascals Out. PHILADELPHIA, Sept. S. - Sepator Tillman last night, in discussing the despatches from Columbia, S. C., detailing disclosures of improper practices on the part of officials connected with the State dispensary of liquors, said that he had known for some time that an investigation of such charges had been in progress. Gov. Evans had consulted him about them. "My acrice to him," said the Senator, "was to search the scandal to the bottom and punish any person found suitty. If officials, remove them from office and then prosecute them criminally afterward. At that time the evidence did not seem conclusive, but my advices received since seem clearer. The confession of Mixson's son, if authentic, should leave no doubt.

"There is no doubt that a great deal has to be left to the honesty of men who handle public funds. If they are honest, they will keep their hands clean. If dishonest, they can get the better of almost any system for a while. All we can do is to punish them when detected."

CAN'I SWILLOW FREE SILVER. Resignation of Chairman Osborn of the

Putnam County Democratic Committee, The action of the Democratic County Committee of Putnam county in endorsing Bryan and the Chicago platform has caused William Church Osborn to resign the Chairmanship of the committee. Mr. Osborn was the Democratic candidate for the Senate last year, and has always been a loyal organization man. He is particularly friendly to ex-Gov. Hill. Mr. Osborn, in resigning, sent this stinging letter to the committee:

Mr. Willis A. Ganoy. Secretary Democratic County Committee.
DEAR SIR: There was a substantial majority At the Democratic County Convention on Toursday, Aug. 27, for the endorsement of both the ticket and the platform made at Chicago.

It follows that aggressive action for the angular form in the county for the county It follows that aggressive action for that ticket and platform is expected from the Chairman of the County Committee. I cannot take such ction.

I consider that the platform adopted at Chi-Toolseder that the piatform adopted at Uni-cago is hostile to nearly every principle of true Democracy. I believe that the free coinage of silver at 10 to 1 would bring suffering and loss to every resident of this country, and particu-larly that it would lower the returns of labor. So far as the platform fails to provide for the payment of just debts in full. I consider it dis-nonest. It had been my hope to strengthen the Demo-

It had been my lope to strengthen the Demo-cratic forces in this county this fall, and to ob-tain for our party the credit of another on-slaught upon the corruption of the ballot. But I cannot retain a position in which the slightest aid for the folly and dishonesty of the Chicago platform is expected from me.

I therefore request you to bresent my resigna-tion of the Charmanship of the Democratic County Committee. Yours very truly.

Chairman Bernard J. York of the Executive ommittee moved to lay the resolution on the table. He said that this was a period for calm consideration and deep thought on the part of the Democracy, and that it would be most impolitic to commit the organization in Kings

Col. James D. Bell, who was a delegate to the Chicago Convention and declared himself against the platform of repudiation, presided at last night's grathering, sithough so far he has not retracted a single word of his patriotic statement. A plan was projected to oust him from the Chairmanship, but it fell through.

The proceedings last night were opened with the announcement that the following six delegates had resigned: James Gibbon, Sixth ward: Peter Menamara, Ninth: James A. Lyon, Tenth; D. H. McNamara, Tenth: Arthur Herring, Twenty-fifth, and Alexander Cameron, Twenty-seventh. The letters of the retiring delegates were not read.

This is the third baten of resignations handed in since the Chicago platform was promulgated. Another significant inclient disclosed was the failure of no less than thirty district associations to hold any primaries for the election of delegates to the Assembly Conventions, which are to choose delegates to the Buffalo Convention, to-morrow night.

Mr. York announced that Senator Jones had advised him that Mr. Bryan would be with them on Sept 23. "And I can assure you," Mr. York said, "on behalf of the Campaign Committee that the reception tendered to Mr. Bryan and his colleague will be worthy of the Democracy of Kings county."

THE YOUNG MEN'S DEMOCRATIC CLUB ON DECK.

The Young Men's Democratic Club of Brook-lyn also met last night, and by a vote of 15 to 4 squelched a resolution in favor of Bryan and free silver. Notice was also given that at the next meeting a resolution would be offered en-dorsing the Indianapolis ticket and platform. REPUBLICANS ALSO AT WORK.

REPUBLICANS ALSO AT WORK.

The Republican General Committee also met last night, and, after endorsing the national and State candidates, spent a couple of hours in a discussion of the factional rumpus in the Twenty-lifth Ward Association.

It is alliered that 600 members of the association were illegally expelled by the Sharker faction, and it was finally determined to refer their idea for reinstatement to the Committee on Organization. Chairman Brennan of the Executive Committee announced that the Rothschild building, in Fulton and Jay streets, had been selected as campaign headquarters, and that arrangements were almost perfected for a big opening raily, at which speakers of national importance will be heard.

WYOMING'S THREE FOTES.

Gov. Richards Thinks His State Will Choose Republican Electors. OAKLAND, Cal., Sept. 8 .- W. A. Richards, the Republican Governor of Wyoming, is in this city on a visit accompanied by his wife. Gov. Richards fully believes that Wyoming will elect three Republican electors. "We believe," he said, "we can carry the State for McKinley and we will leave no stone unturned to do it. It is true we are only a small State and have but three electoral totes, but things might so hap-pen that those three voies would be necessary, and we want to put them in the McKinley and we want to put them in the McKinley column.

"Wyoming is not the only State in which the supporters of Bryan may receive a surprise. In Colorado, although it will go for Bryan, there is going to be a much larger vote for McKinley than the newspapers would like to admit, and I think the Republicans may choose the State officers. Of course Senter Teller has been told by the siver men that he will be returned to the Senater, but there are others who have been scheming for many years to canture the Senators in the siver men that the will be returned to the Senators who have been scheming for many years to canture the Senators who are, but there are others who have been scheming for many years to capture the Senatorship, and it is within the bounds of possibility that Teller will find himself deceived. The upehot of it all will be that Senator Wolcott will emerge from the confusion as master of the situation.

Silver Democrats on Top at Saratoga. SARATOGA, Sept. 8. The silverite element was very much in evidence at the Saratoga county Democratic Convention, which was held at Ballston Spa this evening, and they ran everything to suit themselves. Some of the twenty towns failed to send delegates, and as a Democratic pathering the Convention was the feeblest ever held in this county. It reaembled a Populist gathering. The resolutions, though reported upon by a committee, were prepared in advance by the Convention Chairman, James T. Brusnihan of Saratoga Springs, who viewed them in the light of a great creation. After a preamble and declaration as to Democratic principles, the resolutions endorsed Bryan and Sewall and the Chicago platform. They were adopted upanimously.
